Description

Michel No (French, 1939) Still Life Vase of Flowers Oil painting on canvas signed lower right.

Michel No's painting is full of sun and colors, it is a kind of echo of nature always in motion. A real sincerity emanates from his works. He describes his creative work as follows: "I like the concept of pleasure and joy in painting. I don't have a complicated mind, if I can convey a little of that joy and strength. »

"A great explosion of light and passion, a language with a completely unusual strength."
(Michel Roquebert)

Michel No was born in 1939 in Orsay. He discovered drawing at an early age and at 18 he entered the painting workshop of AD Steinlen in Paris and, from 1957 to 1958, the engraving workshop of G. Visat, where he made decisive encounters: Giacometti, Mas Ernst, César... From 1959 to 1961, he discovered North Africa and the magic of the colors of desert landscapes. In Algeria, he created a series of drawings and gouaches on the Casbah in Algiers. He stayed in Catalonia, where he found the Mediterranean light. He settled in the Catalan hinterland.

1962: Workshop in Bièvres.

1974: Workshop in Palalda in Catalonia.

1962-1990: Personal exhibitions in the main cities of France. Participation in the main trade fairs. He illustrated several bibliophile works. Numerous works acquired by collectors in France, Germany, the United States, Israel, Japan and Switzerland.
