Description

Oil on canvas depicting a landscape with classical ruins and popular figures. The paint has been relined and is in excellent condition. This work is due to the pictorial production of Gaetano Ottani (Bologna 1720 - Turin 1801), who, in addition to being an excellent painter, was an important tenor and a complex career as a decorator.

Gaetano Ottani (or Gaetano Bernardino Ottani) as a painter trained in Bologna, at the Clementine Academy. Inspired by the works of Ferdinando Galli da Bibbiena, he commissioned decorations in the most important Piedmontese villas and palaces. He liked to depict landscapes with ruins, night visions of colonnades and marine inventions. His scenes are imaginative and rich in detail. Inspired by the taste for storytelling of Venetian origin, he creates elaborate and
