Description

Very beautiful silver jewel, representing a duel of dragons of a beautiful quality. The bracelet, in silver chiseled with scales, takes up the movement of the bodies of the dragons, ending on each side with their head. Beautiful silver filigree, open mouths and visible tongues, amethyst cabochon cut at the top of the skull and necks applied with stylized gold leaves, very nice contrast, very elegant!

Excellent condition, to note, 2 micro shocks on the gold parts, well mentioned on my detailed photos, thank you for looking at them carefully!

Asian working, most likely Cambodia or Thailand, dating from the second part of the 19th century or very early 20th, Circa 1900.
