Empire Era Empire

2 980 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Bronze

Width : 23

Height : 52

Depth : 13

Description

Rare Table clock in red griotte marble and finely chiseled patinated bronze, Empire period, France, 19th century Superb Empire period table clock, made of red griotte marble and decorated with finely chiseled patinated bronze. This prestigious model features a parallelepiped case housing a circular dial, signed "Barbier à Paris", with Roman numeral indexes, a symbol of elegance and French craftsmanship. The highlight of this work is the majestic, finely chiseled bronze sculpture representing Napoleon Bonaparte on horseback, richly detailed and finely worked, which tops the composition with an imperial presence. o Period: Empire, 19th century o Dimensions: 52 x 23 x 13 cm o Condition: The marble base has been carefully restored. A few slight defects are visible on the marble, evidence

Dealer

GALERIE DE CICCO MONACO
Empire
Tel : 0033 (0)6 08 75 41 17

La Villa, 19 Galerie Charles III
Monaco 98000

of its historical authenticity. o Note: The clock is sold without pendulum or key. The mechanism should be serviced to ensure optimal operation. Sold as is. This rare and historical piece, showcasing the iconic image of Napoleon Bonaparte, will appeal to fans of the Napoleonic era and demanding collectors. A unique opportunity to acquire a refined art object, witness to an emblematic period of French history. Shipping handled by Galerie De Cicco throughout Europe. Contact us for any further information or to come and admire it in our gallery.