

Richard Ginori, Antique And Rare Porcelain Lidded Cup, Italy, C.1850

1 400 EUR

Signature : Richard Ginori

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 12

Width : 19

Depth : 14,2

Description

This exceptionally rare porcelain lidded broth cup by Richard Ginori was crafted in Italy in the mid-19th century. It features the stunning "Coreano" pattern in red and blue, inspired by the Imari style. The round cup is adorned with elegantly scrolled handles and hand-painted floral motifs in iron red, cobalt blue, and gold.

The lid showcases a woven basket-like relief texture, decorated with floral designs and topped with a rose-shaped finial. As Richard Ginori did not use marking stamps until the 1950s, this piece carries no marks.

Founded in 1735 by Marquis Carlo Ginori near Florence, Richard Ginori is one of Europe's oldest and most prestigious porcelain manufacturers.

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

Renowned for its timeless designs and exceptional craftsmanship, the brand catered to European aristocracy in the 19th century, producing both functional and decorative porcelain with floral, mythological, and neoclassical themes. Today, Richard Ginori remains a symbol of Italian luxury and artistry, with its porcelain highly sought after by museums and collectors.

Dimensions:

Height 12 cm

Width approximately 19 cm

Depth 14.2 cm

Weight 543 grams

Condition:

There are minor chips on the petals of the rose finial on the lid. Otherwise, the cup is in excellent antique condition, with paint, enamel, and gilding well-preserved. Please note the stand is not included.

Please carefully review the accompanying photographs, as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us. The item will be securely packed and shipped with full tracking and insurance.

Shipping costs include labour, packaging, and postage.