Description

Beautiful painting depicting the "Last Supper" attributable to a talented painter of Venetian culture, probably active in the workshop of Francesco Bassano or a follower strongly linked to that cultural and artistic field that follows the most modern Venetian painting, which was influenced by Tintoretto and Jacopo Bassano, more tenebristic than Titian's previous works, but in which color becomes the true protagonist and used as a lighting instrument for the scene.

The painting has recently been cleaned, allowing for a very pleasant overall effect. The painting is mounted on an ancient and contemporary frame, which retains its original lacquer.

Measurements with frame: 115 x 88cm.
