Description

Triptych of an antique Napoleon III French clock in expertly chiseled gilded bronze.

The clock has a circular dial with Roman numerals surrounded by racemes and flowers ending with a cherub.

The lower part has the same rocaille shape with a pair of cherubs in the center.

The two candelabra recall the same shape as the clock and have two large sculptures of women in the center and end with a log with five wax lights.

Origin: France 19th century.

Clock measurements: 30x15 H45cm.
