Description

Discover this sumptuous small black painted wooden table with two tops from the Napoleon III period. A true masterpiece of craftsmanship. This piece is distinguished by its upper top decorated with a hand-painted central motif, representing a romantic scene with a chapel on the edge of a stream, surrounded by peaceful nature, illuminated by a setting of delicately painted flowers and enhanced golden arabesques. The contours of the top, finely cut, are enhanced by a remarkable burgautée marquetry (mother-of-pearl inlays). This artisanal technique, typical of exceptional pieces, gives the table a subtle and refined shine. The underside of the table, also decorated, takes up the painted floral elements, in perfect harmony. The structure is elegantly sculpted and rests on curved legs typical
