Description
-------------

Ring in 750/°° white gold (18 KT, owl hallmark) formed by two crossed ribbons in a pretty, very soft intertwined movement. The two ribbons form two loops, openwork, and paved with brilliant-cut diamonds set with grains. Their movement creates changing visual effects depending on the viewing angle, and gives this ring a dynamic aesthetic, while remaining very ergonomic. The high-quality diamonds are set with particularly careful work that creates a soft touch, like a ribbon of fabric. Very numerous, they combine their respective fires to produce a particularly bright general sparkling effect. Total weight of diamonds estimated at approximately 1.90 ct
Ring of contemporary manufacture. Gross weight: 9.82 g Ring size: 55 and a half - possible resizing to be studied by our workshop (current
