Description

This exquisite low table, crafted in the Louis XVI style, dates back to the late 19th century and showcases exceptional craftsmanship and classical elegance. The beautifully carved wooden frame is adorned with gilt detailing, exuding timeless sophistication. Designed with both functionality and charm, the table features a glass top that opens as a display case, perfect for showcasing precious items, collectibles, or keepsakes.

Intricate details, such as hand-carved floral motifs at each corner and a Greek-key-inspired frieze running along the frame, demonstrate the meticulous attention to detail typical of 19th-century artisans. The table stands on four fluted and tapered legs, further enhancing its
