Description

This 1930s Art Deco period chest is a perfect example of minimalist and clean design. Made from walnut veneer, it has a rectangular section with a recessed top, emphasizing the geometric lines and simplicity characteristic of Art Deco.

The only touch of whimsy is the base flanked by mirrors, adding a dimension of sophistication and play of light. These mirrors reflect the surroundings, creating an illusion of depth and highlighting the natural beauty of the walnut.

This chest is a testament to the understated elegance and innovation of the 1930s, combining functionality and aesthetics in a timeless design.

It would be a centerpiece in any interior, bringing a touch of refinement and modernity. *****
