Description

This elegant small mid-20th century rosewood marquetry coffee table is a true gem of craftsmanship. It opens with a belt drawer, decorated with a bronze handle with scroll patterns, adding a touch of sophistication and refinement. The table top has projections and is partially highlighted by a finely worked brass gallery, accentuating its decorative and precious character. The curved legs of the table are decorated with bronze falls and sabots. This base is secured by a spacer tablet, offering both additional functionality and a balanced aesthetic. This table is a fine example of mid-20th century craftsmanship, which combines both the elegance of the design and the richness of the materials used.  Period: Mid-20th century
