Description

Magnificent high side table in carved and openwork stained beech, inspired by the creations of Gabriel Viardot. Inspired by the spirit of the Far East, this side table is distinguished by its crotch shelves finely incised with geometric patterns and accompanied by edges. Its facades are decorated with large bronze medallions in the upper part. They each represent a dragon in flight, adding a mystical dimension to this furniture. The latter has moving feet and a recessed top in Belgian griotte marble which offers a smooth and durable surface, ideal for highlighting your decorative objects.  Period: Late 19th century Excellent condition. Delivery, in France and internationally. Dimensions: Width: 46 cm Depth: 35 cm Height: 114 cm reference 102V
