Description

This walnut column, dating from the art deco era of the 1930s, is a piece of furniture remarkable for its elegance and simplicity. Its strength lies in the very essence of walnut, a noble and durable wood, as well as in its refined style that perfectly characterizes the art deco aesthetic. The round molded top adds a touch of sophistication, while the cylindrical shaft rests firmly on a pedestal, giving the whole a stability and an imposing presence. The smooth finish and rich tone of the walnut highlight the natural beauty of the wood, making this column a decorative element that is both functional and artistic. In short, this walnut column is a timeless piece that blends harmoniously into various interior styles, bringing a touch of refinement and charm to any space. ***** Period: 1930 Excellent
