Description

Colossal and proud three-masted mahogany 19th century of the Mediterranean Sea, with an incredible presence, all sails in the wind, of high quality and built with precision, finesse of the hull assemblies, richness and details of the rigging, a Unique, Historical, and very well made piece. This beautiful "object of curiosity" is a success both for the choice of the Ship and for its realization which make it an important element of the decor and setting the tone for an "Amateur Cabinet" fond of Adventures and sure of its choice, in good condition and placed on its fixed keel this very beautiful and imposing boat will delight children and parents alike, a piece they can be proud to display in their living room on a piece of furniture where it sets the tone or in an office (not necessarily of an Ancient Shipowner),
