The Victor - Mechanism Corkscrew

250 EUR

Period : 19th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Metal
Length : 18 cm

Description

Corkscrew with mechanism, marked
The principle of a nut, or a fin, which no longer forms the handle of the corkscrew but is added to the thread.
Model invented by Philos Blake in the United States around 1860.
Good condition
Length 18 cm

Dealer

Art Classique
curiosités, art premier et Asiatique
Mobile : 0032-475272534

Bilzen 3740