Description

Charming Louis XVI period secretary (end of the 18th century) in veneer and marquetry of rosewood, violet wood and satinwood. It opens with a flap on the front, as well as a drawer in the upper part, and 2 doors in the lower part. The gray marble top is original, as are the locks. (Work with 2 keys). This refined piece of furniture has been restored and revarnished with a tampon by us, it is impeccable and perfectly functional.
