Mercury gilded bronze clock, rich gold gilding. Louis XIV style, resting on four claw feet topped with acanthus, the uprights are decorated with pilasters ending with fire pots. The dial on a finely chiseled gilded background indicates the hours in white enameled cartouches protected by domed glass. Topped by a vase with handles decorated with a woman's bust. This clock works, it is supplied with its key and its period pendulum. No defect or loss to report!
