Description

This magnificent 19th century trumeau combines elegance and refinement thanks to its finely carved gilded wooden frame. The upper part is decorated with a delicate romantic painting, representing a country scene animated by characters in traditional clothes surrounded by greenery and animals, in a soothing pastoral setting. The frame has carved details with floral motifs and period ornaments, testifying to the artisanal know-how of the period. The original gilding has retained a beautiful patina, reinforcing the antique charm of this object. Some wear and tear enrich its authentic character without altering its overall beauty. The lower part is composed of a rectangular mirror, ideal for adding a touch of light to a classic or romantic interior. This trumeau, both decorative and functional, is a
