Description

I offer you this beautiful Louis Philippe period cardboard box / writing case in mahogany veneer. The upper part acting as a writing case is a tablet covered in black leather, this tablet opens to access the interior compartment, just below, an opening drawer and then a series of 5 cardboard drawers on the front. On the right side in the upper part, a small drawer opens which left room for the pen and 2 inkwells. All the bases are of quality and in oak. The whole is well preserved, I do not have the keys, I report a peeling of the leather on the writing case and some small scratches on the front of the drawers of the cardboard box (nothing serious) Maximum height: 119.5cm Maximum width: 60cm Depth: 41cm Free delivery in Paris and the inner suburbs, contact me for delivery in France and
