Description

Antique Oil Painting, Small Seascape With Coast and Sea, features an Oil Painting on Canvas from the 19th century. Antique Landscape Paintings, which proposes a foreshortening of the coastline painted in warm, bright colours. The antique work is signed bottom right by Paul van de Venne, a Belgian painter from Brussels. Paul van de Venne (1870-1954) studied art at the Academies of Brussels from 1882 to 1884 and of Saint-Josse-ten-Noode and was a pupil of Jozef Van Dijck. He loved painting landscapes of the Ardennes, cityscapes of Bruges. But above all, he painted seascapes, seascapes of dunes and fishermen. Impressionist painter. From 1925 he worked in Blankenberge, where he exhibited regularly at the Casino Kursaal. The small oil painting is dressed in a lacquered wooden
