Description

Magnificent carpet from the Beauvais factory, dating from the early 19th century, measuring 321 x 169 cm. This masterpiece is needle-knotted, with wool and silk threads on cotton foundations, a traditional tapestry technique. Its general condition is excellent, with remarkable finesse of execution. The sky blue field, a rare color, is decorated with volutes of branches and crenellated foliage in symmetrical twists, framing a central medallion. The latter, of an original geometric shape, is bordered by a crown of finely drawn polychrome flowers, in inlaid ivory. The frame of the carpet has magnificent reserves of garland cords, decorated with bouquets of multi-colored flowers, while the four spandrels are decorated with stylized towers and fortifications, surrounded by trees and plants.
