Signed Theodore Levigne lower right. Théodore Levigne is a French painter, born on November 17, 1848 in Noiretable and died on November 11, 1912. His family moved to Lyon in 1856 in the Saint-Jean district. He joined the École nationale supérieure des beaux-arts de Lyon from 1860 to 1862. Our painting is a classic of Levigne, a snow landscape, but his production is sometimes uneven in terms of quality. This painting, on the other hand, is very interesting in its composition, there is a beautiful depth, the eye wanders through the painting, then there is a very beautiful contrast, the white of the snow which stands out against a dark background, a leaden sky, then the quality of the drawing which sometimes leaves
