Description

This superb pair of 19th century armchairs embodies the rustic elegance and timeless charm of the Provencal style. Made of solid wood, these armchairs are distinguished by their graceful lines and balanced proportions, specific to traditional furniture from the south of France. Their structure is finely crafted, with slightly curved armrests and a backrest with sculpted patterns evoking the rural and artisanal influences of Provence. The seats, made of hand-woven straw, demonstrate ancestral know-how and bring a touch of natural simplicity that harmoniously completes the whole. These armchairs are both robust and aesthetic, combining functionality and elegance. Their warm and authentic patina gives a unique personality to each piece, and they will fit easily into a classic or rustic interior. Whether to adorn
