Description

This elegant Art Nouveau lamp, dating from the end of the 19th century, perfectly illustrates the organic and refined aesthetic specific to this artistic movement. Made of gilded brass, it has a finely curved stem, decorated with stylized floral details, characteristic of the naturalist inspiration of Art Nouveau. The glass globe, in the shape of a delicately crafted tulip, is remarkably fine. Its frosted and textured glass diffuses a soft and warm light, creating an intimate and soothing atmosphere. The wavy edges of the globe, reminiscent of the petals of a flower, add a touch of delicacy to the whole. Resting on a stable and refined circular brass base, this lamp combines beauty and functionality. Ideal for enhancing a bedside table, a desk or a living room, it is a true timeless object of art, imbued with the charm and
