Description

Because Brittany was not the only one so prized by painters, Alsace was not left behind either, as proven by this painting representing the place du marché aux cochons de lait in Strasbourg with the superb Alsatian houses forming the corner with the place de la grande boucherie and the famous cathedral in the background.

The painter, Roger Deverin (1884-1973)* used a beautiful palette of colors mixed with graphite highlights.

Probably painted around 1940-1950 on a plywood panel.

Dimensions on sight 54 cm x 44.5 cm. Possible delivery by chronopost for:

France EUR30

Europe EUR70

Others EUR120
