

Pineapple Holder In Bohemia, 19th Century

2 900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Crystal

Description

A magnificent pair of opaline overlay pineapple holders, typical of 19th century Bohemian glassworks. These pieces measure 30 cm in height and are adorned with elegant crystal pendants that catch and reflect the light, adding a touch of refinement. Each pineapple holder features rich hand-painted floral decoration, with colorful and detailed patterns that surround the upper neck, highlighting the exquisite craftsmanship of the period. The red base enhanced with gilding harmoniously completes the ensemble. These objects are a testament to the exceptional know-how of the Bohemian master glassmakers, renowned for their luxurious and sophisticated creations.
