Description

Pair of Napoleon III period covered vases on shower feet, in Sèvres blue porcelain, romantic decor, representing young women dancing with bouquets of flowers, the scenes are signed A. Collot. The medallions on the back of the vases represent musical instruments and haystacks. The blue porcelain is richly decorated with flowers, foliage and four-color gilded with gold leaf. The lids are decorated with a bronze fretel representing an acorn. The chiseled bronze handles are flanked by women's masks. We find an openwork golden ring between the vases and the lids. Square feet in chiseled bronze with laurel garlands and flowers. Under the lid, we find the stamp of the Tuileries castles. See photo
