

Earthenware Plate, 18th Century.

280 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 20,8 cm

Description

This plate is circular and slightly hollow, it comes from the South-West, probably Samadet. It is painted in the center, on a terrace, with a character whose costume evokes the Harlequin of the Comedia del Arte. The wing bordered by a double manganese line is decorated around the edge with small flowers. Beautiful enamel and excellent condition, two very small chips are to be noted. Diameter 20.8 cm.
