Description

A splendid pair of small sideboards made of solid maple, covered with thuja burl veneer and finished with walnut details that enhance their elegance. The two-tone effect of the light wood, in contrast with the darker finishes, adds a touch of refinement, while the design of the wood helps make these pieces of furniture even more fascinating. The sideboards are characterised by onion-shaped feet and a classic decoration with ovals in the undertop and in the lower part, which enhance their design. Furthermore, the smooth burl top is a distinctive element. The gilded bronze hinges, together with an ergonomic door and drawer, offer practicality for storing objects inside. This magnificent pair is able to adorn any environment with taste and class. Central European manufacture from the Charles X period,
