

Antique Pitcher Made Of Mold-blown Glass

65 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Height : 20

Description

This pitcher from the 1940s of the 20th century was made from mold-blown glass, with the mold imparting the pattern on its surface.

Beautiful and, above all, light! Many pitchers, particularly those in cut crystal, have the drawback of being cumbersome due to their heaviness, even when empty.
