About Saint Vincent, deacon of Saragossa in Spain, was martyred at the beginning of the 4th century under the persecution of the emperor Diocletian. Faithful companion of Bishop Valère, he was arrested and subjected to terrible torture for refusing to renounce his Christian faith. Despite the suffering, he remained steadfast, which inspired many believers. Finally, he died a martyr around the year 304. His cult spread quickly throughout the Church, and he is today venerated as the patron saint of winegrowers and deacons.
