Description

Lovely pair of carved wooden puttis from the 18th century, old work and of good quality, the patina is superb and very brown. The position of their arms suggests that they must have once supported something. The whole is well preserved, traces of old restorations, I report a small lack on the thumb of one of the two, some cracks and wear to the patina. Height: 64cm Width: 25cm Depth: 20cm Free transport for Paris and the inner suburbs, contact me for transport in France and around the world
