Description

Very beautiful old kilim from Maras in South-Eastern Anatolia. The piece is lovely and the indigo blues are wonderful. Woven wool on wool in the traditional way. The weaving is fine and refined. The piece is supple and light. Its simple composition in horizontal bands separated by smaller embroidered patterns gives us an immediate reading and a feeling of peace! At first glance, we are seduced. 100% vegetable shades, both bright and deep, with a tender softness. Circa 1850 Good general condition, some wear
