Description

Art Deco style ring in platinum (dog's head hallmark) of beautiful size, and oval shape, decorated in its center with a cabochon emerald with a soft and balanced color, crystalline. This emerald is directly surrounded by old-cut diamonds of beautiful size forming a daisy due to the half-moon cut of the sapphires that follow them. These create a contrast that also draws the outline of the ring by a fine border. Like the Art Deco rings, this ring is flat and very covering on the finger. It combines the closed and grain settings of the stones easy to adopt on a daily basis. The edges of the platinum settings are in accordance with the aesthetics of the time finely pearled, as well as the finely worked basket. Weight of the emerald cabochon estimated at approximately 5.50 ct Total weight of the
