Description
-------------

Enamelled ceramic sculpture, titled and signed on the base, made by the Italian manufacturer Lenci in Turin, under the hand of Lino Berzoini.

This piece represents a young woman holding two doves in her arms.

Her ample dress with delicate floral patterns and her bodice with clean lines bear witness to the exceptional know-how of the Lenci house, famous for its high-quality ceramic creations. The combination of bright hues and meticulous details, particularly in the rendering of the birds and the face, gives this sculpture an elegance.
