Description

Female face in white marble

Era: 1900

Dimensions: diameter 18 cm, height 32 cm

Origin: Rome

Description: A refined white marble face, probably part of a larger statue, created in the early 20th century. The delicate expression and soft modeling of the face recall the characteristics of classical art, with harmonious features and a sense of aesthetic balance. The wavy hair, masterfully sculpted, frames the face, adding vitality and depth. The smooth and luminous surface of the marble enhances the beauty of the forms and gives the piece a timeless charm. Perfect as a decorative element, this bust is a tribute to the Roman sculptural tradition and fits well in both classical and modern settings.
