The magnificent image of the Grand Canal with the Rialto Bridge and the surrounding buildings.

A scene of great movement on its waters in a fascinating panorama, rich in lights and colors.

The description of this fantastic place, despite all the characteristics of late 19th century painting, pays homage to the unmistakable art of Francesco

Guardi, with the particularly clear and effective description of the characters and boats in the typical manner of the great Venetian Master.

The large size of the painting increases the effect of the splendid perspective that leads the viewer's eye to the famous Bridge, symbol of the city.

The canvas is in perfect condition complete with the original gold frame.
