Description

Djalor (or jaloor, or djaloor) Turkmen wool, circa 1960-70. Very good condition.

Djalors are bags similar to torbas that were used by the Turkmen. We find the 'S' motif originally representing a two-headed dragon that could be observed on ancient Persian, Chinese and Celtic bronzes.

Two techniques used: knotted stitches for the front and kilim for the reverse. Beautifully made.

Note: a braid has been sewn to the back of the bag which allows it to be hung on the wall.
