Description

Tilting dressing table mirror in chiseled and gilded bronze. From the Empire period, the circular mirror is highlighted by a frieze of small flowers, supported by a cherub with butterfly wings representing Psyche in bronze with a burnished patina, resting on a hemisphere supported by a cylindrical column chiseled with crosspieces. In its period patina, very beautiful gilding! The original mercury mirror has some stains. Work from the 19th century. Height of the cherub: 12cm
