Description

Pair of marble and gilt bronze incense burners with inverted candlesticks. Antique Louis XVI style work from the 19th century. Beautiful model with a covered vase resting on a white marble column. Very beautiful chiseling of the bronzes and mercury gilding in matt and shiny. These incense burners are a beautiful and useful decorative object. Depending on the direction in which the lid is placed, they can be a beautiful decorative object, a fireplace decoration or to be placed on a piece of furniture, or become a pair of candlesticks in the other direction. Our incense burner candlesticks are in excellent condition: no damage to the marble, remarkably preserved gilding. Height with stopper: 22cm
