Description

Modernist composition by the great Provençal creator Joseph ALESSANDRI measuring 80cm x 60cm signed and annotated on the back Born in Tunis in 1940 he took some evening classes at the Beaux-Arts in Marseille before working for 7 years with a master glassmaker that he left to devote himself entirely to painting. His first exhibitions, he did them in Marseille then in Saint Remy de Provence (moreover the museum of this same city preserves several works of this artist), in Lyon, Paris where the Visconti gallery will have the exclusivity, then Switzerland, the United States etc ... Is it painting-sculpture? relief-object, Alessandri uses practically only wood as a material. Wood that he cuts, planes, polishes or leaves in the raw state and with which he develops singular pieces which are assemblies
