

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Art Nouveau Brooch

5 200 EUR

Signature : Henri Dubret

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Gold

Description

18-carat gold brooch decorated with clovers adorned with Colombian emeralds (low oil) and small pearls.

This is French work from the beginning of the 20th century by the house of Henri Dubret in its original case.

It is accompanied by a certificate from the LFG for the emeralds.

Who was Henri Dubret?

Little known to the general public but sought after by connoisseurs, Henri Dubret was a Parisian goldsmith and jeweler active at the turn of the 20th century. Registered in 1902, his workshop, located at 1 rue d'Hauteville in Paris, will remain his emblematic address.

Dealer

Galerie Cordeau-Oudoux
Collectibles and antique jewelry

la Rochelle 17000

A master of Art Nouveau

Dubret excels in the work of precious metals, enamels and stones, creating pieces of remarkable finesse. His style, influenced by Art Nouveau, is distinguished by organic and naturalistic motifs, sublimating the beauty of nature through his creations.

Weight: 14.3 g