

19th Century Rare Pair Of Beechwood And Cane Rocking Chairs

2 240 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 103 cm

Width : 59 cm

Height : 100 cm

Description

This exquisite pair of vintage rocking chairs showcases the timeless beauty of curved wood craftsmanship paired with the elegance of handwoven cane seating. Made from high-quality bentwood, these chairs boast gracefully arched frames that highlight their refined, sculptural aesthetic. Their flowing lines and intricate scrollwork evoke the classic designs of the late 19th century, making them a charming addition to any interior space. The seat and backrest are expertly crafted with woven cane, which not only provides a lightweight and airy appearance but also offers exceptional comfort and durability. The natural tones of the cane harmonize beautifully with the warm, rich wood finish, giving the chairs a sophisticated yet inviting character. Perfectly balanced, these rocking chairs

Dealer

Chic French Antiques

Purveyor of fine French antiques dating from the 18th to the 20th century

Mobile : 0612049287

Showroom

La Ciotat 13600

provide a gentle, smooth motion, making them ideal for moments of relaxation in a living room, sunroom, or covered terrace. Their timeless design makes them versatile pieces that can complement a range of decor styles, from traditional to bohemian or mid-century modern. With their exceptional craftsmanship and elegant details, this pair of rocking chairs is more than just functional seating--they are true works of art that bring a touch of vintage charm and elegance to any space.