and wise expression is accentuated by delicate work of shadows and colors.

Frame & base: The architectural frame, decorated with garlands and finely carved decoration, evokes the structure of liturgical reliquaries. The gilding, although patinated by time, retains its shine and highlights the composition.

Colors & Patina: The use of deep blue and gold gives a solemn and sacred aura to this work, while the natural patina of the wood accentuates its authenticity and antiquity.

Presence in the History of Art

Painted monstrances from this period are rare and sought after. They were often used for private devotion or religious processions. This work illustrates the influence of Louis XVI classicism in sacred art, where balance and architectural rigor are combined with delicate and expressive iconography.
