Description

Rosewood secretary stamped with an iron on the rear upright. It opens at the waist with a drawer, veneered in butterfly wings, fitted with pearl ring handles with mascarons. Below, the flap, veneered in developed, is decorated with an original lock with scroll entry and key. Open, this flap mounted on compasses is darkened with brown leather with spandrels, vignettes and cold pattern. The interior, also in rosewood, offers six small drawers with chiseled lentil button, a central space and a fixed shelf. This piece of furniture has, in the lower part, a double door, inlaid in the same spirit, with authentic lock, entries and key. The lamp base is decorated with a bronze motif with acanthus leaf and tureen. The front uprights, partly molded and highlighted by bronze falls with rosette and acanthus leaf decorations, are
