Description

This contoured plate from Olerys in Moustiers dates from the middle of the 18th century. Painted in green monochrome, it is decorated in the center, on a terrace, with a character walking while leaning on a cane, the wing bordered by a double line supports a decoration of flowers and twigs. It bears the mark of Olerys on the reverse. In excellent condition, its enamel has retained a beautiful shine, some small enamel chips on the edge are to be noted. Diameter 25 cm.
