Excellent état
Noble chest in carved walnut, with an exceptionally rich and elaborate decoration, of Tuscan origin, made in the 18th century. The urn-shaped lid is characteristic of Florentine production. The splendid single-section front panel bears a heraldic coat of arms in the center surrounded by spiral motifs that cover the entire facade in a symmetrical manner. Important thick base entirely embellished with an elegant carving, supported by lion paws. All the decorations on the front are repeated on both sides. The furniture is characterized by the beauty of the carving and its majestic appearance, as well as by the three-dimensional effect of the particularly elegant and vigorous carving. After
