Description

This is an 18th-century Venetian-style work table, lacquered and finely decorated in the early 20th century. The surface and side panels feature elegant hand-painted floral motifs in warm and vibrant tones such as golden yellow, green, and red. The ornamental details reflect the sinuous lines of the Rococo style, with rich decorations and harmonious curves that enhance the period's characteristic charm. The corners and legs are adorned with refined scrolls and floral designs, giving the table an elegant and precious appearance. The glossy lacquer finish adds a sophisticated touch, highlighting the craftsmanship and refined taste of the Venetian era.
