Description

This exquisite 19th-century oval guéridon or center table is crafted from beautifully carved walnut, showcasing the natural warmth and elegance of this timeless wood. The pink marble top, with its striking veining and polished finish, sits gracefully atop the wooden frame, creating a harmonious blend of luxury and craftsmanship.

The walnut frame features intricate carved details, including floral and ribbon motifs along the apron and down the fluted legs, highlighting the exceptional skill of 19th-century artisans. A warm patina enhances the natural grain of the walnut, adding depth and character to this antique piece.

The table's four elegantly curved legs are joined by a caned lower stretcher, which not only
